Department of the Navy
Attention: Mr. E. W. Lewis

FROM: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: FOTICA, Dragon Drago (Z-3190)
Dragutin, Dragon Drago
KROUL, Putica

FILE IN [REDACTED]

1. Reference is made to the request dated 3 January 1960, subject as above, whose name you desired checked against the files of this office. Our files contain information concerning one Dragon FOTICA, date and place of birth not known, who is possibly identical with Subject.

2. A report dated 2 March 1948 from an unevaluated source indicated that Subject was Chief of Police in Bosnia under Ante PAVELIC, Chief of the Independent State of Croatia under the Nazis during World War II. Subject was later a member of Ustaichi Supreme Council (Croatian Terrorist organization).

3. In a report dated 31 July 1953, a usually reliable source stated that FOTICA was a member of a Gestapo team working in Italy from 1941 to 1945. Source further indicated that Subject, while working with the Gestapo, became a part of a Communist terrorist organization which assassinated anti-Communists.

4. A report dated 8 June 1951 from a usually reliable source indicated that one Dragon FOTICA, a Communist agent, resided at Calle Paraguay 923, Apt. 1-B, Buenos Aires, and that this apartment was a meeting place for several women who were Communist agents.

5. According to a report dated 23 September 1952 from a usually reliable source, Dragon FOTICA, a Cominform agent, was engaged in smuggling activities between Argentina and Brazil. The same report indicated that Subject, in July 1952, had been sent to La Paz by the Argentine police on an unknown mission.
